

Managing financial crisis: Public and private sector challenges

22 February 13:00 at Sverigesalen, The Swedish National Defence College

Over three years since the collapse of Lehman Brothers and the deep destabilization of the global economy, the world remains wracked by financial crisis. On 22 February 2012, CRISMART at the Swedish National Defence College and CEFIN at KTH host a seminar that brings together high-level government officials, private sector practitioners and academic experts to provide a variety of perspectives and propose potential ways forward in managing the crisis.

Preliminary program

- 13:00 Introduction to seminar: Prof. Stellan Lundström, dean of the School of Architecture and Built Environment, KTH
- 13:10 Keynote address: Stefan Ingves, Chairman of the Executive Board and Governor of the Riksbank
- 13:50 Angelo Persiani, Italy's Ambassador to Sweden
- 14:20 Coffee break
- 14:40 Cecilia Hermansson, Chief Economist of Swedbank
- 15:10 Dr. Tom Kärrlander, Economic Historian at the Center for Banking and Finance, KTH
- 15:40 Panel discussion: Angelo Persiani, Cecilia Hermansson, Tom Kärrlander and Erik Belfrage of Investor AB and SEB.
- 16:10 Questions from audience
- 16:25 Concluding comments

The seminar is free of charge and open to the public. It will be held in English.

To register: <http://www.fhs.se/managing-financial-crisis>

For more information please contact: Eric Paglia eric.paglia@fhs.se Mobile: 070 738 6554

KTH Architecture and the Built Environment