

SEMINAR PROGRAM

Responsibility to Protect by Military Means – Visions, Strategy and Challenges for the UN , EU and Sweden

11 November 2009 Stockholm

Sverigesalen/Sweden Hall - Swedish National Defence College, Drottning Kristinas Väg 37

- 9.00-9.15 Welcome and introduction –
Maja Kirilova Eriksson, prorektor, Swedish National Defence College
Aleksander Gabelic, chairman, United Nations Association of Sweden
- 9.15-9.45 Key note speaker:
Dr Edward Luck,
United Nations Secretary-General's Special Adviser on Responsibility to Protect
- 9.45-10.15 Presentations:
Diana Amnéus, Senior researcher (LL.D), Raoul Wallenberg Institute
Sharon Wiharta, Senior researcher, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute
Ove Bring, Professor emeritus, National Defence College
- 10.15-10.45 Coffee
- 10.45-11.15 Panel discussions:
R2P and it's consequences for EU and Swedish Defence planning
Moderator: Jens Petersson, United Nations Association of Sweden

Åsa Lindestam, Socialdemokraterna, Riksdagens försvarsutskott/Swedish Parliament
Birgitta Ohlsson, Folkpartiet, Riksdagens utrikesutskott/Swedish Parliament
Plus previous speakers
- 11.15-11.45 Questions and Closing

To attend the seminar pre-registration is mandatory.
This is done by sending an email to: jens.petersson@fn.se

Organizers: Raoul Wallenberg Institute, Swedish Institute of International Law – Uppsala University, the Swedish National Defence College and the United Nations Association of Sweden

